Certificate IV Mental Health Peer Work (CHC43515)

The Certificate IV Mental Health Peer Work is a nationally recognised qualification developed in conjunction with a steering committee of peer workers and organisations in the mental health field.

Providing peer workers with the fundamental skills to work effectively within an organisation, this qualification provides a framework for your practice, teaching you a combination of skills and frameworks to implement into your workplace and inform your professional practice.

Mental Health Victoria is currently scheduling our next course.
